'Peace'

Programme

As the theme for this weekend is the value 'Peace' we will explore our inner peace based on fascinating lectures of our guest speakers, Marianne Meyer of Denmark and George Bebedelis from Greece, and interesting workshops taking place on Saturday afternoon.

The lectures and workshops are interspersed with beautiful (international) musical contributions - including on Saturday the special music program 'That one special Song' about 'personal experiences from several devotees in relation to a song that has special meaning for them. The Sathya Sai Seva Choir will also give a performance with the participants from the choir workshop. There is also plenty of opportunity to relax together. In the nearby area one can enjoy a walk in inland dunes.

The weekend begins on Friday, 13 May, arrival time 17:30. On arrival there will be soup and bread. The evening programme starts at 19:30 with bhajans and a lecture by Marianne Meyer. The weekend ends on Sunday afternoon with a lunch at 13.00.
