

SaiArt Symposium 2016

Art Comes from HeArt

Sai Prema (nearby Athens) in Greece

15th - 23th of October 2016

What can the chisel and a lump of marble do with no image formed in the heart of a devoted sculptor? That vision and that image are the sparks of the Divine.

Sathya Sai Baba, Ananthapur, 8-7-1971

In this 7th SaiArt Symposium in Sai Prema in Greece the focus is on the original source of any Artwork - it is to find expressions formed as an image in the heart for Divine Love. Drawings, paintings, crafts, poetry, music, photos, audio and video recordings or any other artistic expressions are welcome. As special task during the symposium we are invited to create visual expressions for quotations of Swami to be placed in Sai Prema.

Working sessions during the symposium will give the possibility for intercultural, international and interdisciplinary teamwork.

The theme of the Symposium will be deepened in

- workshops/study circles/service
- excursions
- presentations

On the Avatar Declaration Day, October 20, there will be the possibility for the participants to celebrate this important event in the Sathya Sai Centre of Athens together with all Greek devotees.

The symposium will conclude with a cultural event.

Arrival will be on Saturday, October 15, departure on Sunday, October 23 in the afternoon or on Monday, October 24, 2016.

The cost of accommodation and food will be 230 Euro (a reduction is possible if needed). Transfer from and to the Airport is included, if the arrival or departure time is suitable. The 230 Euro will be paid after arrival.

Every participant is expected to cover the cost of his or her art materials. You may bring your materials with you.

Kindly send your application before October 5 to Helena Rytönen.

Along with the application please share some information about your professional background (curriculum vitae) and a photo or documentation of a chosen piece of your art work.
