

ARADHANA MAHOTSAVAM & EASWARAMMA DAY

A DAY OF HOMAGE

The Regional “Sathya Sai Aradhana Mahotsavam” will be held on Saturday, April 28 from 2:30 PM-6:30 PM at the Hoover Middle School Auditorium in Lakewood. Please join us in this offering of love and gratitude on this reverential remembrance of Bhagawan’s Mahasamadhi. It is also an observation of “Easwaramma Day”, honoring Swami’s earthly mother who led an exemplary life of selfless service.

Prof. R. Gangadhara Sastry is our special guest speaker from Prasanthi Nilayam. He has been an ardent devotee for almost four decades and has had many blissful interactions with Sathya Sai Baba. He has been on the faculty of Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Learning since 1979, holding teaching and administrative positions in the University, serving as the Director of the Campus, Member of the University’s Academic Council, and Chairperson of the Board of Studies. Prof. Sastry has published extensively on academic and spiritual themes. Swami advised him on many topics, and also healed his wife and daughter. He will share about his divine experiences with the Lord and the profound lessons learned, and take some of your questions.

The program also includes soulful devotional singing by the Young Adults and a presentation by students from Sai Spiritual Education.

Dinner prasadam will be provided at the end.

Hoover Middle School is on 3501 Country Club Drive in Lakewood, 90712
